Mail Order Bride: My Heart's Journey (Historical Arranged Marriage Pioneer Story) (Clean And Wholesome Fiction)

Synopsis

Charlotte Watson has led a mighty unusual life. Torn away from her mother at birth, she lives the adventurous life of a wanderer, raised by a father with the best intentions and very little knowledge of how to raise a daughter. But he knows how to raise a girl who can think for herself. However, Charlotte is determined to stay unmarried and unencumbered by the rules and demands of another. But when tragedy strikes poor Charlotte's life once again, she is forced to reconsider the trajectory her life will take. Charlotte lets go of everything she knows to move to a wild land she had never even imagined could exist before. She travels straight into the home of Tucker Grant, the mysterious man she has tied her life to. Will Charlotte be able to adjust to her new foreign surroundings? Will she and Tucker try to mend their differences before allowing themselves to be torn apart? Included are seven bonus clean short stories.

Customer Reviews

This story is full of surprises and experiences. Reader will be able to observe the life of a beautiful girl, which is struggling with problems. But only she alone can solve this life's problem. I will not retell the novel, but I will say that tragatelny, I'm sure that some readers will be able to conduct parallels with their lives. I read very quickly, because there was not enough time, but with great pleasure. I'll re-read! I recommend!

Great story of leaving affluence behind to search for a simpler, more fulfilling about Charlotte life. This book was great definitely deserved the five stars. It was a great story. This book would have been perfect for me had the story focused more on the relationship, romance and life.

This book was not clean and wholesome enough for me. I had only read a few pages when I came across two curse words. I did not want to read any farther because I did not want to risk having to read more curse words. If an author wants to title his book clean and wholesome he needs to leave out the curse words!

This little story is fantastic and I loved reading this authors style of telling this story. There was sweetness, humor, and tension, a great characters story line.
