God Is Near

Synopsis

Rigley had Annabelle's heart as soon as he jumped into her lap and kissed her on the nose. This adorable bunny brings the story behind the story of the redbird. God Is Near engages the imagination with a charming story showing how God speaks His message of love through His creation. Using signs and wonders, God teaches children that He walks with them through sadness, loneliness, or whatever life brings their way. He shows how He hears and answers prayers, but most of all, He assures children that they will never be alone because He is always near.

Customer Reviews

This adorable book goes far beyond just cute and fun! The lesson of God being near is so comforting, so sweet and very very important for our children. Without God, we have nothing. Knowing He is always near just warms the soul, and soothes the fears of our children! The author obviously has a close relationship with God! She ministers to her friends and loved ones while indeed being in need herself of prayer and healing! Jan Carter has a beautiful gift!

This afternoon I was watching a pair of cardinals outside of my kitchen window, and as always they reminded me that God is near. A little while later, this precious book arrived! There is a joyful exuberance in God is Near that will appeal to young minds and the hope filled message will touch their hearts. Children will love the beautiful illustrations and will learn that God hears and answers their prayers. I highly recommend this book!

I was privileged to get a sneak peak at this book. It is the sweetest, most relatable- and relational- book about the visibility of our invisible Father. It's a story that will not only capture your children and grandchildren's attention, but their hearts as well. With the current saturation of pervasive and deceptive modern day media - we desperately need our little loved ones to hear the voice of truth. God has spoken through Jan to do just that.

Such a pure simple truth expressed in such a delightful way and illustrated beautifully. Redbirds will bring me joy for the rest of my life. Thank you for sharing such a wonderful story.
